

April 28, 2020

Providing a Helping Hand

As the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic continues, more people are facing food insecurity. Even in good times, for many students school meal programs are the difference -based meal program during these extraordinary times. Staff are pitching in and distributing about 600 hot nutritious meals every school day.